

9/10

parents who were not close to a playground said that having access would make their child play outside more

61%

of parents with access to a playground said it makes their child play outside more

53%

of parents said their child would be more active if they had more access to playgrounds

Almost half of parents said they find it difficult to persuade their child to leave their screen

Almost half of parents overall said their child prefers screen time over other activities

There is marked decline in outdoor play by the age of 8

69%

of 10-12 year olds prefer screens over outdoor play

By 2020/21 there will have been a decrease in spend on playgrounds of 44%

since 2017/18

Closed

35%

of parents have experienced closure or neglect of their local playground

only 34%

of those with children aged 10-12 said that they would be happy to for their child to play unsupervised in their local playground